THE LATEST.

State News of General Interest Briefly Told.

The Court of Appeals has refused to grant a further delay in the case of Caleb Powers.

Mrs. William Brown, William Spratt, and Mr. Spratt's five year old sister were bitten by a rabid dog in Garrard county.

Elder R. B. Neal, of Grayson has become associate editor of the Kentucky Star, the Prohibition organ printed at Georgetown.

Col. Thomas S. Petit, the former Populist leader, is a candidate for mayor of Owensboro, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Jim Floyd and Mary McKay were arrested at Bedford charged with deserting a young babe at Seymour, Ind. The child died from exposure.

The Court of Appeals reversed the decision in the case of Jim Greer, given a life sentence at Ben ton for the murder of John Thomas, an aged negro.

The case against Jule Webb, who was charged with the killing of Chad Hall, which has been on trial in London, resulted in the acquittal of the prisoner.

The city of Paris has ordered suit brought against the Paris Water company for $25,000 damages for failure to keep its contract to furnish the city "pure, wholesome water."

John Bumpus, who operates a planing mill near Lafayette, Christian county, fell dead last Friday while plowing in his garden. He was seventy years old and the father of Walter Bumpus, a prominent business man of Pembroke.

Robert L. Pepper, representing his brother, Charles Pepper, the well known former traveling man of Princeton, has bought the new Princeton Hotel property. The property was sold at public auction and brought $6,603.

Julia Trabue, colored was found guilty of murder in the Jefferson county Criminal court and sentenced to death. She is said to be the only woman so sentenced in the history of the court, and the judge has suggested clemency to Gov. Beckham.

What came near being a serious fight in the court room at London between two factions was narrowly averted a few days ago. The judge ordered that every man in the court room who had arms to either get out or be searched. An immediate stampede took place.

Louis Burgess, who killed a man in Louisville during the Spanish-American war, and who escaped from the Frankfort penitentiary some months ago, has been arrested in Dayton, Ohio. Burgess stabbed the man to death while disputing as to the justice of the war.

By a recent ruling of the Controller of the Treasury, on and after June 1st, 1901, all post office orders drawn on offices other than the ones at which they are made payable will not be honored. This decision will prove inconvenient to the business men of the larger cities, though not materially so to Marion.

Saturday night Mrs. Kate Hester, of Covington, shot and killed her husband, killing her three year old baby daughter, falling dead across her husband's body. The tragedy occurred in the dining room of their home, and was the sequence of a heated quarrel that was heard by the neighbors. Mrs. Hester was 32 years old and her husband ten years older.

A close personal friend of Mr. Sam J. Shackelford, of Owensboro clerk of the Court of Appeals, says he has determined to enter the fight before the next Democratic convention for the office of State Treasurer. Mr. Shackelford is not eligible for re-election as clerk. He has heretofore been mentioned as a possible entry in the race for auditor.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals has decided that a school superintendent of a county, discovering a violation of the contract of publishers with the State of Kentucky to furnish school books at the same price charged by them in other states, may recover damages to the full amount of the company's bond, the money recovered to go to the common schools of the county.

The latest crop bulletin from Washington for this state says: Conditions improved, but low temperature and lack of sunshine has checked growth; tobacco setting well advanced, but in many localities plants are small and scarce; wheat generally improved but heading low; corn growing slowly; gardens late; apples dropping; other fruit doing well; cut worms had in many localities.

ED. PRESS: How do you feel?

There is nothing more delusive than your feelings or more deceptive of real conditions. They are the most real things to you, and you wish them to be treated, especially if they are unpleasant or painful. We respect your feelings and we seek always to relieve our patients of abnormal feelings, but we do not treat them as other doctors do. These feelings are effects from our knowledge of the human body we examine into the cause, and treat the cause. Just think of the questions the medical doctor asks you. He is careful to consider everything that you tell him. Then he trusts your feelings; if it is pain he seeks to relieve it; if it is inaction he either stimulates or purges; drugs do this; but do the drugs cure? You may have found that they do not; if you have been long sick, you have learned the deadly effect of drugs; the average doctor depends on what you tell him about yourself; you could deceive him; if you told him you had a pain on the back of your head he would treat it—if in the bottom of the foot he would take your word for it; not one in a hundred would examine into the cause and condition of the pain; the Osteopath would do this very thing; this is the chief difference between osteopathy and other medical bodies.

Osteopathy seeks the cause and removes it; do you want the cause of your sickness removed? Investigate Osteopathy; we will help you. Write to

Very truly,
Southern School Osteopathy,

Saves Two from Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of the whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but when all other remedies failed we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery; our niece, who had consumption in an advanced state, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to 110 other medicines on earth; 50c and $1 bottles guaranteed by J. H. Orme; trial bottle free.

THE GREAT OIL FIELDS

Of Texas Described by a Former Crittenden County Boy.

PORT ARTHUR, TEX., May 26.

EDITOR PRESS: Dear Sir—There seems to be a loyalty to home and to the principal organ of communication of Crittenden county, the PRESS, that fills the hearts of Crittenden's sons when away from home, and I feel it on me now, and if you will be so kind as to give a little room in the PRESS I will be glad to give you a few pointers on the town where I have made my home for the past six months.

Port Arthur, Texas, is an inland port in the southwest part of the State, fifteen miles from the Gulf, and is the terminus of the Kansas City Southern Railway; it is connected with the Gulf by a deep water channel through which the largest ocean steamships can pass and anchor at the docks.

Port Arthur is only about five years old and has about one thousand inhabitants, some of whom are the most influential and wealthy people of the country. The town was laid out in the most modern style, with several acres of parks that are well set in shrubbery and flowers that stay green the year round. This, with many other things that I will not take space to mention make it a typical southern town.

The famous oil wells of southeastern Texas, that have attracted the attention of the world during the past few months, are only a few miles from Port Arthur, and have caused a great boom for the town. You have doubtless read the phenomenal reports of this great oil field and probably doubted the truth of many of the reports, but being an eye witness of this great oil field I might be able to tell you a few things about it that you would not believe otherwise.

The first well was struck January 10, 1901, and when struck the oil began to flow like a great geyser and gain in force until it went about 100 feet high, and was uncontrollable for four days before they could stop the flow. From the very day that this geyser was struck men began to form companies to bore for oil and to buy and lease land and pay prices for land that would seem out of the question to a Kentuckian. It would seem unreasonable, but land has changed hands in the oil fields for the consideration of from thirty thousand dollars to two hundred dollars per acre.

When I was in the oil field three weeks ago there were about 160 derricks, 11 of which had struck oil, several were digging and a number were waiting for their machinery.

While I was there three wells were turned loose and it was such a sight as I never had seen before; a stream of oil about eight inches in diameter began to flow out of the wells, and gaining in force till it got about sixty feet high when it was cut off.

The oil fields with the rich and boundless prairie will doubtless, make southeast Texas famous in the country.

Thanking you for the newsy columns of the PRESS that come to hand every week, I remain

Yours as ever,

JACOB CRIDER.

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature,—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day,—it is no wonder that our children, relatives and friends are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Get a sample bottle free from Jas. H. Orme or Robert F. Haynes. Regular size 75 cents. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Sunday School.

The annual Sunday School Convention will be held at Sugar Grove church Thursday, June 13th, 1901. Everybody invited. A good time in the Sunday School work is expected.

Prof. E. A. Fox and H. K. Taylor will be there; other speakers are expected.

Fifty Cents a Year Less Than a Penny a Number

THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY

Published at Atlanta, Ga.

After a career of more or less activity in the Southern field for over a quarter of a century The Sunny South has again become a weekly, better and more readable than at any time in its history. It contains serial stories from the best known authors the world over. It is devoted to Southern readers and Southern writers and is their own story paper. Short stories, sketches, incidents of war and of peace, anecdotes at home and abroad, poems, ideas, fashions, hints for home keepers, everything of interest to old and young will appear in its excellent weekly make up.

The two great serials, "TRISTAN OF BLEN," by ANTHONY HOPE (now in progress with full synopsis to cover former installments), and "Rosalynde's Lovers," by Maurice Thompson, to begin April 27th, will be read with absorbing interest throughout the whole South. This is your opportunity, and only 50 cents for a full year of it. Think of it! 50 cents.

Subscription price is only fifty cents a year. No agents' commission. The paper is its own best offer and argument to the subscriber. One sample copy free to you and to your six neighbors whose names and addresses you send on a postal card, provided you send at once. A club of five at 50 cents each, accompanied by the full amount $2.50 net to us, entitles the sender to The Sunny South a whole year free.

The Sunny South is your old friend in a new form, always improving, every issue to exceed the last one. The South's literary paper is here at last. Order it today.

The Sunny South in combination with the greatest of all Southern Weekly NEWSPAPERS—The Atlanta Weekly Constitution—both for only $1.25 a year. Remit that amount to The Sunny South, and get these two great papers—One Literary; the other News.
